Section 3 – Consent to Participate

Introduction	By signing this Consent Certificate, I consent to my child named in Section 1 to join the RAF Air Cadets. I confirm that they are at least 12 years of age and not below Year 8 at school (or at least 12 years old and in secondary education in Scotland). Furthermore, I understand that I am responsible for any clothing and equipment loaned to them, which remains the property of Her Majesty's Government, and I will ensure that it is returned in good condition (fair wear and tear excepted) immediately when they cease to be an RAF Air Cadet or whenever called upon to do so by a duly authorised officer. I understand that I can withdraw my consent, in writing, at any time.
Photographic and Video Consent	The RAF Air Cadets frequently takes photographs/videos of cadets participating in cadet related events and activities. These images may appear in press publications, promotional videos, website articles, including on the RAF Air Cadets websites and social media and occasionally on television, to promote and aid recruitment in the RAF Air Cadets. The RAF Air Cadets never release home addresses to the media. All taken and stored images are within the limitations of the Data Protection Act 2018 and UK General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). Some web-based/virtual training sessions and meetings will be recorded which may be broadcast through web streaming and videos on official RAF Air Cadets channels and mechanisms.

Flying & Gliding	As an RAF Air Cadet, your child may have the opportunity of passenger or instructional flights in British military registered aircraft. All military aviation activity is conducted under MAA regulation (see https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/military-aviation-authority). Whilst the activity is not directly delivered by the RAF Air Cadets, should such opportunities present themselves, your child will only be permitted in the aircraft if your consent has been given. Irrespective of aircraft type, your child will have been thoroughly briefed and appropriately supplied with safety equipment before flight. Medical fitness of cadets is important for the safety of the aircraft and crew. Cadets may be required to undertake further medical scrutiny before being allowed to fly in certain military aircraft types. If, because of further medical scrutiny, Cadets are found to be medically unsuitable, they will be prevented from undertaking flights. Whilst the MOD does all it can to reduce the risks associated with flying and the RAF Air Cadets will carefully supervise your child and ensure their safety at all times, flying activity will always involve an element of risk and whilst accidents are rare, they can happen and can be fatal. <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>I consent to my child flying in the following categories of aircraft</th> <th>Yes</th> <th>No</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>British military light aircraft and gliders for the purposes of air experience and instruction:</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>British military gliders and powered aircraft on their own as a solo pilot:</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>British military passenger transport aircraft and helicopters:</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>Other types of British Military aircraft including high performance jets:</td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	I consent to my child flying in the following categories of aircraft	Yes	No	British military light aircraft and gliders for the purposes of air experience and instruction:			British military gliders and powered aircraft on their own as a solo pilot:			British military passenger transport aircraft and helicopters:			Other types of British Military aircraft including high performance jets:

Marksmanship Training	As an RAF Air Cadet, your child may have the opportunity to fire Air Rifles, Small-Bore Rifles, Full-Bore Rifles and Shotguns as part of our Progressive Training Syllabus on authorised Live Firing Marksmanship Training events. All Live Firing Marksmanship Training is conducted under the Cadet Safe System of Training. Irrespective of the type of Cadet Weapon System used, your child will have been thoroughly trained through a course of Initial Weapons Training by qualified instructors and will have passed a mandatory Weapon Handling Test before they are permitted to fire any Cadet Weapon System. Cadets are required to re-take Weapon Handling Tests regularly to ensure that they remain trained, current and competent in line with the Cadet Safe System of Training. All Cadet Forces Adult Volunteers planning and delivering Initial Weapon Training and Live Firing Marksmanship Training are trained, current, competent, and qualified to do so under the Cadet Safe System of Training and are subject to regular assessment and compliance activities. The MOD does all it can to reduce the risk of Live Firing Marksmanship Training to be as low as reasonably practicable and the RAF Air Cadets will carefully supervise your child and ensure their safety at all times. Live Firing Marksmanship Training will always involve an element of risk and whilst accidents are rare, they can happen and can be fatal. <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>I consent to my child participating in Initial Weapon Training and Live Firing Marksmanship Training using Cadet Weapon Systems:</th> <th>Yes</th> <th>No</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	I consent to my child participating in Initial Weapon Training and Live Firing Marksmanship Training using Cadet Weapon Systems:	Yes	No

These activities are designed to stretch individuals outside their comfort zone, under controlled conditions, led by appropriately trained, current, competent, and qualified staff. Your child may have the opportunity to participate in events that we have identified as higher risk. You will be asked to provide your express consent to your child's participation in these events on an individual basis and without explicit consent, your child will not be permitted to take part. Examples of higher risk events and activities might include (but not limited to): - Adventure training events including Duke of Edinburgh Award expeditions. - Fieldcraft training and more advanced field-based leadership courses. - Large public military events where cadets will be taking part in larger ceremonial parades occasionally involving marching on the public highway. - Longer duration events which may involve overnight stays. - Any other higher risk events identified and sanctioned by the RAF Air Cadets senior leadership. Consent for web-based/virtual training delivery and meetings may be withdrawn at any time by speaking to the local unit commander who will update the Cadet Forces MIS central record for the child in question. In that case, all processing operations that were based on your consent and took place before the withdrawal of consent remain valid.

Further information on the RAF Air Cadets approach to data protection and privacy can be found in our Information Management \(IM\) Directive and IM Plan and the RAF Air Cadets Privacy Notice - Cadets.

To exercise these rights, please contact the local unit commander in the first instance or the RAF Air Cadets Data Protection Officer on RAFAC-HQ-DPA@mod.gov.uk.
